

Was this the best range day ever?!?! Great weather and good turnout for the state match! It was nice that it was so enjoyable since it did burn up nearly 8 whole hours. Results are attached.

First the 2700 was basically the Scott, Roy and John show taking the first 3 places led by Roy posting a 2543-73x with a big FIVE points separating the top three! If there was ever an example of top notch competition this was it! Congratulations to all three of you and especially to Roy of course for taking the state crown.

We had enough shooters to run a Reeves match and award one EIC 22 and one EIC Service Revolver leg.

"Ironman", John, came out on top of the Reeves AND the EIC Revolver matches, his score of 362-7x should earn him a 6 point leg toward CMP Distinguished Revolver! EIC revolver is a relatively new CMP match and as with all of their matches the results have to be authorized officially back in Ohio. Congratulations John!! Maybe the "wheelman" Len will be able to join us again someday and defend his title or at least give that young whipper-snapper a little competition.

Finally, in the EIC 22 match David won the match with a 280-3x, BUT because he is already distinguished the leg points should go to Scott with his 279-5x. Congratulations to both of you for some fine scores!!

A great match to close out the outdoor season and I hope to see you all again next year or maybe in the Winter Leagues as well.
